Buy-Back of Shares

- 4A. The Company, subject to Section 68 and other applicable provisions of the Act and other applicable regulations, as the case may be in force, may from time to time buy-back its own shares, by passing a Special Resolution at its general meeting or by means of a resolution passed by the board of directors at its meeting, as may be applicable.

New capital same as existing capital

5. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the existing capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained, with reference to payment of calls and installments, forfeiture, lien, surrender, transfer and transmission, voting and otherwise.

Redeemable Preference Shares

6. Subject to the provisions of Section 55 of the Act, the Company shall have the power to issue Preference Shares which are liable to be redeemed and the resolution authorizing such issue shall prescribe the manner and terms and conditions of redemption.

Provisions to apply on issue of Redeemable Preference Shares

7. On the issue of Redeemable Preference Shares under the provisions of Article 6 hereof the following provisions shall take effect:
- a. No such shares be redeemed except out of the profits of the company which would otherwise be available for dividend or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purpose of redemption;
 - b. No such shares shall be redeemed unless they are fully paid;
 - c. The premium, if any, payable on redemption must have been provided for out of the profits of the Company or the Company's Share Premium Account before the Shares are redeemed;

Where any such shares are redeemed otherwise than out of the proceeds of a fresh issue, there shall, out of the profits which would otherwise have been available for dividend, be transferred to a reserve fund, to be called the 'Capital Redemption Account', a sum equal to the normal amount of the shares redeemed and the provisions of the Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of the Company shall, except as provided in Section 55 of the Act, shall apply as if the Capital Redemption Reserve Account were paid up share capital of the company.

Reduction of Capital

8. The Company may from time to time by Special Resolution reduce its capital and any Capital Redemption Reserve Account or Share Premium Account in any manner for the time being authorized by law and, in particular, capital may be paid off on the footing that it may be called upon again or otherwise. This Article is not to derogate from any power that the Company would have if it were omitted.

Sub-division, consolidation and cancellation of shares.

9. Subject to the provisions of section 61 of the Act, the Company in General Meeting may, from time to time, sub-divide or consolidate its shares, or any of them, and the resolution whereby any share is sub-divided, may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of such shares advantages as regards dividend, capital or otherwise over or as compared with the others or other. Subject as aforesaid the Company in General Meeting may also cancel shares which have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

Modification of rights

10. The rights and privileges attached to each class of shares may be modified, commuted, affected, abrogated in the manner provided in Section 48 of the Act.

SHARES AND CERTIFICATES

Register and Index of Members

11. The Company shall cause to be kept a Register and Index of Members in accordance with Section 88 of the Act. The Company shall be entitled to keep in any state or country outside India a part of register called "foreign register" containing names and particulars of members, debenture-holders, other security holders or beneficial owners residing outside India.

Shares to be numbered progressively and no share to be sub-divided

12. The shares in the capital shall be numbered progressively according to their several denominations, and except in the manner herein before mentioned, no shares shall be sub-divided. Every forfeited share shall continue to bear the number by which the same was originally distinguished

Further issue of Capital

13. The Board may at any time increase the subscribed capital of the Company by issue of new shares out of the unissued part of the Share Capital in the original or subsequently created capital, but subject to Section 62 of the Act, and subject to the following conditions namely:
- (a) (i) Such further shares shall be offered to the persons who, at the date of offer, are holder of the equity shares of the Company in proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit, to the capital paid up on those shares at that date.
 - (ii) The offer aforesaid shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time not being less than fifteen days and not exceeding thirty days, from the date of the offer within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to have been declined.
 - (iii) The offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the person concerned to renounce the shares offered to him or any of them in favour of any other person and the notice referred to in clause (b) shall contain a statement of this right.
 - (iv) After the expiry of the time specified in the notice aforesaid, or in respect of earlier intimation from the person to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board may dispose of them in such manner as it thinks most beneficial to the Company.

- (b) The Directors may, with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting by means of a special resolution, offer and allot shares to any person at their discretion by following the provisions of section 62 of the Act and other applicable provisions, if any.
- (c) Nothing in this Article shall apply to the increase in the subscribed capital of the Company which has been approved by :
 - (i) A Special Resolution passed by the Company in General Meeting before the issue of the debentures or the raising of the loans; and
 - (ii) The Central Government before the issue of the debentures or raising of the loans or is in conformity with the rules, if any, made by that Government in this behalf

Shares under control of directors

14. Subject to the provisions of these Articles and of the Act, the shares including any shares forming part of any increased capital of Company shall be under the control of Directors who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons in such proportions on such terms and conditions, and at such times as the Directors think fit and subject to the sanction of the Company in General Meeting with full power, to give any person the option to call for or be allotted shares of any class of the Company either at a premium or at par or at a discount (subject to the provisions of the Act) and such options being exercisable for such time and for such consideration as the Directors think fit. The board shall cause to be filed the returns as to allotment provided for in Section 39 of the Act.

Power also to Company in General Meeting to issue shares

15. In addition to and without derogating from the powers for that purpose conferred on the Board under Article 13 and 14, the Company in General Meeting may, subject to the provisions of Section 62 of the Act, determine that any shares (whether forming part of the original capital or of any increased capital of the Company) shall be offered to such person (whether member or not) in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par or at a discount (subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 53), as such General Meeting shall determine and with full power to give any person (whether a member or not) the option or right to call for, of or be allotted shares of any class of the Company either (subject to compliance with provisions of Sections 52 of the Act) at a premium or at par or at a discount, such option being exercisable at such time and for such consideration as may be directed by such General Meeting or the Company in General Meeting may take any other provisions whatsoever for the issue, allotment or disposal of any shares.

Issue other than for cash

- 16.(a) The Board may issue and allot shares in the capital of the Company as payment or payment for any property sold or goods transferred or machinery or appliances supplied or for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the acquisition and or conduct of its business and shares may be so allotted as fully paid-up shares, and if so issued, shall be deemed to be fully paid-up shares.
- (b) As regards all allotments, from time to time made, the Board shall duly comply with Section 39 of the Act.

Acceptance of Shares

17. Any application signed by or on behalf of an applicant for shares in the Company followed by allotment of any share therein, shall be an acceptance of shares within the meaning of these Articles and every person who thus or otherwise accepts any shares and whose name is on the Register, shall for the purposes of these Articles be a member.

Deposit, call etc to be debt payable immediately

18. The money (if any) which the Board shall, on the allotment of any shares being made by them, require or direct to be paid by way of deposit, call or otherwise, in respect of any shares allotted by them, shall immediately on insertion of the name of the allottee in the Register of Members as the name of the holders of such shares, become a debt due to and recoverable by the company from the allottee thereof, and shall be paid by him accordingly.

Liability of Member

19. Every member, or his heirs, executors or administrators, shall pay to the Company the portion of the capital represented by his share or shares which may for the time being, remain at such time or times, and in such manner as Board shall, from time to time, in accordance with the Company's regulations require or fix for the payment thereof.

Share Certificate

- 20.(a) Every member or allottee of shares shall be entitled within one month from the date of application for registration of transfer or transmission or within two months from the date of allotment (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) without payment;
- (i) to receive one certificate for all his shares; or
 - (ii) to receive several certificates each for market lots of shares held by any members, specifying the name of the person in whose favour it is issued, the shares of which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.

Such certificate shall be issued only in pursuance of a resolution passed by the Board and on surrender to the Company of its letter of allotment or its fractional coupons of requisite value, save in cases of issues against letters of acceptance or of renunciation or in case of issue of bonus shares. Every such certificate shall be issued under the seal of the Company, which shall be affixed in the presence of two Directors or persons acting on the behalf of the Directors under a duly registered power of attorney, and the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Board for the purpose, shall sign the share certificate, provided that if the composition of the Board permit, at least one of the aforesaid two Directors shall be a person other than a Managing or Whole time Director. Particulars of every share certificate issued shall be entered in the Register of members against the name of the person to who it has been issued indicating the date of the issue.

- (b) As two or more joint allottees of a share shall, for the purpose of this Article, be treated as single member, and the certificate of any share, which may be the subject of joint ownership, may be delivered to anyone of such joint owners on behalf of all of them.
- (c) A Director may sign a share certificate by affixing his signature thereon by means of any machine, equipment or other mechanical means, such as engraving in metal or lithography or digitally signed, but not by means of a rubber stamp, provided that the Director shall be personally responsible for permitting the affixation of his signature and for the safe custody of such machine, equipment or other material used for the purpose.

- (d) Notwithstanding anything contained in Article 20(a), the Board may not accept applications for sub-division or other consolidation of share certificates into denominations of less than the market unit of trading except when such a sub-division or consolidation is required to be made to comply with a statutory order or any Order of a Competent Court of Law or a request from a member to convert his holdings of odd lots of shares into transferable/marketable lots, subject, however, to verifications by the company.
- (e) The Company shall give effect to a transmission of shares and consolidation or subdivision of share certificates as provided in Article 20 (d), and shall issue share certificates in pursuance thereof within two months of lodgment of a proper application for such transmission, consolidation or sub-division.

Option to receive share certificate or hold shares with depository

- 21. A person subscribing to shares offered by the Company shall have the option either to receive certificates for such shares or hold the shares in dematerialised state with a depository. Where a person opts to hold any share with the depository, the Company shall intimate such depository the details of allotment of the share to enable the depository to enter in its records the name of such person as the beneficial owner of that share.

Renewal of Share Certificate

- 22. If a certificate be worn out, defaced, destroyed, or lost or if there is no further space on the back thereof for endorsement of transfer, it shall, if requested, be replaced by a new certificate without any fee, provided however that such new certificate shall not be given except upon delivery of the worn out or defaced or used up certificate, for the purpose of cancellation, or upon proof of destruction or loss, on such terms as to evidence, advertisement and indemnity and the payment of out of expenses as the Board may require in the case of the certificate having been destroyed or lost. Any renewed certificate shall be marked as such in accordance with the provisions of the act in force. No fee shall be charged by the Company for issue of such certificate.

The first named or joint holders deemed sole holder

- 23. If any share stands in the names of two or more persons, the person first named in the Register shall as regards receipt of dividends or bonus or service of notices and all or any other matter connected with the Company, except voting at the meetings, and the transfer of shares, be deemed to be the sole holder thereof, but the joint holders of share shall be severally as well as jointly, liable for the payment of all installments and calls due in respect of such shares and for all incidents thereof according to the Company's regulations.

Company not bound to recognize any interest in share other than that of registered holder

- 24. Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, or as by law required the Company shall not be bound to recognize any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or (except only as is by these Articles otherwise expressly provided) any right in respect of a share other than an absolute right thereto in accordance with these Articles, in the persons from time to time registered as the holder thereof; but the Board shall be at liberty at their sole discretion to register any share in the joint names of any two or more persons or the survivors of them.

Funds of the Company may not be applied in purchase of shares of the Company

25. None of the funds of the Company shall be applied in the purchase of any shares of the Company, and it shall not give any financial assistance for or in connection with the purchase or subscription of any shares in the Company or in its holding Company save as provided by section 67 of the Act

UNDERWRITING AND BROKERAGE

Commission may be paid

26. The Company may at any time pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether absolutely or conditionally) for any shares or debentures in the company, but so that the commission shall not exceed in the case of shares five per cent of the price at which the shares are issued, and in the case of debentures, two and half per cent of the price at which the debentures are issued. The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares in one way and partly in the other.

Brokerage

27. The Company may pay a reasonable sum for brokerage.

CALLS

Directors may make calls

28. The Board may, from time to time, subject to the terms on which any shares may have been issued and subject to the conditions of allotment, by a resolution passed at meeting of the Board (and not by circular resolution) make such calls as it thinks fit upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively and each member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the person or persons and at the times and places appointed by the Board. A call may be made payable by installments.

Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.

Notice of Calls

29. Thirty days' notice in writing at the least of any call shall be given by the Company specifying the time and place of payment, and person to whom such call shall be paid.

Calls to date from resolution

30. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing such calls was passed at a meeting of the Board.

Calls may be revoked or postponed

31. A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

Liability of joint holders

32. The joint holders of a share be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

Directors may extend time

33. The Board may, from time to time at its discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call, and may extend such time as to all or any of the members who by reason of residence at a distance or other cause the Board may deem are fairly entitled to such extension, but no member shall be entitled to such extension save as a matter of grace and favour.

Calls to carry interest

34. If any member fails to pay any calls due from him on the day appointed for payment thereof, or any such extension thereof as aforesaid, he shall be liable to pay interest on the same from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board but nothing in this Article shall render it obligatory for the Board to demand or recover any interest from such member.

Sums deemed to be of calls

35. Any sum, which by the terms of issue of a share become payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purpose of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise, shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Proof of trial

36. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any member or his representatives for the recovery of any money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member in respect of whose shares the money is sought to be recovered, appears entered on the Register of Members as the holder, or subsequently to the date at which the money is sought to be recovered, is alleged to have become due on the shares in respect of which such money is sought to be recovered; that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the Minute Book, and that the notice of such call was duly given to the member or his representatives used in pursuance of these Articles; and that it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of Directors who made such call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof of the matters as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence or debt.

Partial Payment not to preclude forfeiture

37. Neither the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any member to the Company in respect of his shares, either by way of principal or interest, nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any such money, shall preclude the Company from thereafter proceeding to enforce a forfeiture of such shares as hereinafter provided.

Payment in anticipation of calls may carry interest

38. (a) The Board may, if it thinks fit, agree to receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the amounts of his respective shares beyond the sums actually called upon and upon the moneys so paid in advance, or upon so much thereof from time to time, and any time thereafter as exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon and due in respect of the shares on account of which such advances are made, the Board may; pay or allow interest, at such rate as the member paying the sum in advance and the Board agree upon. The Board may agree to repay at any time an amount so advanced or may at any time repay the same upon giving the member three months notice in writing provided that moneys paid in advance of calls on any shares may carry interest but shall not confer a right to dividend or participate in profits.

- (b) No member paying any such sum in advance shall be entitled to voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would be but for such payment become presently payable.

Company to have lien on shares

39. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares (other than fully paid up shares) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof, for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares, and no equitable interest in any shares shall be created except upon the footing and upon the condition that article 24 hereof is to have full effect. Any such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares. The Board may, however, at any time, declare any share to be exempt, wholly or partially from the provision of this article.

As to enforcing lien by sale

40. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Board may sell the subject thereto in such manner as they shall think fit, and for that purpose may cause to be issued a duplicate certificate in respect of such shares and may authorize one of their member to execute a transfer thereof on behalf of and in the name of such member. No sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member or his representatives and default shall have been made by him or them in payment, fulfillment, or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for fourteen days after such notice.

Application of proceeds of sale

41. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to persons entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

If money payable on shares not paid, notice to be given to member

42. If any member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same or any such extension thereof as aforesaid, the Board may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or installment remain unpaid, give notice requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

Form of notice

43. The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or installment and such interest thereon at such rate as the Directors shall determine from the day on which such call or installment ought to have been paid and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that, in the event of the non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or installment is payable, will be liable to be forfeited.

In default of payment shares to be forfeited

44. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid shall not be complied with, every or any share in respect of which such notice has been given, may at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or installments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or any other moneys payable in respect of the forfeiture share and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

Notice of forfeiture to a member

45. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register of members, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make any such entry as aforesaid.

Forfeited share to be property of the Company and may be sold, etc.

46. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or disposed of, either to the original holder thereof or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

Member still liable to pay money owing at the time of forfeiture and interest

47. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company, on demand, all calls, installments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of the forfeiture until payment at such rate as the Board may determine, and the Board may enforce the payment thereof, as it thinks fit.

Effect of forfeiture

48. The forfeiture of a share shall involve extinction, at the time of the forfeiture, of all interest in all claims and demands against the Company, in respect of the share and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these articles are expressly saved.

Evidence of forfeiture

49. A declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or Secretary of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited in accordance with these Articles on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all person claiming to be entitled to the share.

Validity of sale

50. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers herein before given, the board may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

Cancellation of share certificates in respect of forfeiture

51. 84. A body corporate being a member shall be deemed to personally present if it is represented in accordance with Section 113 of the Act.

If quorum not present meeting to be dissolved or adjourned

85. If, at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for holding a meeting of the Company, a quorum shall not be present, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of members, shall stand dissolved, but in any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week or, if that day is a public holiday, until the next succeeding day which is not a public holiday, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place in the city or town in which the Office of the Company is for the time being situated, as the Board may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum, is not present at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which meeting was called.

Chairman of general meeting

86. The Chairman (if any) of the Board shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting, whether Annual or Extraordinary. If there be no such Chairman of the Board, or if at any meeting he shall be unable or unwilling to take the Chair, then the Managing Director shall be entitled to take the Chair and failing him the Directors present may choose one of their members to be the Chairman of the Meeting. If no Director be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the members present shall elect one of their member to be the Chairman.

Business confined to election of Chairman while chair is vacant

87. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting except the election of Chairman, while the Chair is vacant.

Chairman with consent may adjourn meeting

88. The Chairman with the consent of the members may adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place in Bombay, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Question at general meeting how decided

89. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall, unless a poll is ordered by the chairman of the meeting, be decided on a show of hands/result of electronic voting as per the provisions of Section 108, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands/electronic voting) demanded in accordance with the provisions of Section 109. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on show of hands/electronic voting, has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. Before or on the declaration of the result of the voting on any resolution on a show of hands, poll may be ordered to be taken by the Chairman of his own motion and shall be ordered to be taken by him on a demand made in that behalf by any member or members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the Company which confer a power to vote on the resolution not being less than one-tenth of the total voting power in respect of the resolution or on which an aggregate sum of not less than five lakh rupees has been paid up.

Chairman casting vote

90. In the case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall both on a show of hands, or electronically or on a poll, as the case may be, have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a member.

Poll to be taken if demanded

91. If a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the provisions of Section 109, it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman, subject to the provisions of Section 109 of the Act, may be direct, and the results of the poll shall be deemed to be the decision of the meeting on the resolution on which the poll was taken.

Scrutinizers at Poll

92. Where a poll is to be taken, the Chairman of the meeting shall appoint two scrutinizers to scrutinize the vote given on the poll and to report therein to him. One of scrutinizers so appointed shall always be a member (not being an Officer or employee of the Company) present at the meeting, provided such a member is available and willing to be appointed. The Chairman shall have power at any time before the result of the poll is declared to remove a scrutinizer from office and fill vacancies in the office of scrutinizer arising from such removal or from any other cause.

In what case, poll taken without adjournment

93. Any poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting forthwith.

Demand for poll not to prevent transactions of other business

94. The demand for a poll except on the question of the election of the Chairman and of an adjournment shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

VOTE OF MEMBERS

Members in arrears not to vote

95. No members shall be entitled to vote, either personally or by proxy, at any General Meeting of a class of shareholders, either upon a show of hands/electronic voting or upon a poll in respect of any shares registered in his name on which any call or other sums presently payable by him have not been paid, or in regard to which the Company has exercised any right of lien.

Provided, however, if any preference shareholder be present at any meeting of the Company, save as provided in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 47, he shall have a right to vote only on resolutions placed before the meeting which directly affect the right attached to his preference shares.

Casting of votes by member entitled to more than one vote

97. On a poll taken at a meeting of the Company a member entitled to more than one vote or his proxy or other person entitled to vote for him, as the case may be, need not, if he votes, use all his vote or cast in the same way all the votes he uses.

Votes of joint members

98. If there be joint registered holders of any shares, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting or may appoint another person (whether a member or not) as his proxy in respect of such shares, as if he were solely entitled thereto and, if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first one in the Register shall alone be entitled to speak and to vote in respect of such shares, but the other or others of the joint holders shall be entitled to be present at the meeting. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name shares stand shall for the purpose of these Articles be deemed joint holders thereof.

Voting in person or by proxy

99. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, votes may be given either personally or by proxy. A body corporate being a member may vote either by a proxy or by a representative duly authorized in accordance with section 113 of the Act, and such representative shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers (including the right to vote by proxy) on behalf of the body corporate which he represents as that could exercise if it were an individual member.

Votes in respect of shares of deceased and insolvent member

100. Any person entitled under Article 62 to transfer any share may vote at any General Meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that forty-eight hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such shares and give such indemnity (if any) as the Directors may require or the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

Appointment of proxy

101. Every proxy (whether a member or not) shall be appointed in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney, or if such appointer is corporation under the common seal of such corporation, or be signed by an officer or any attorney duly authorized by it, and any committee or guardian may appoint such proxy. The proxy so appointed shall not have any right to speak at the meeting.

Proxy either for specified meeting or for a period

102. An instrument of proxy may appoint a proxy either for the purpose of a particular meeting specified in the instrument and any adjournment thereof or it may appoint for the purpose of every meeting of the Company, or of every meeting to be held before a date specified in the instrument and every adjournment of any such meeting.

Proxy to vote only on a poll

103. A member present by proxy shall be entitled to vote only on a poll.

Deposit of instrument of appointment

104. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any), under which it is signed or a notorially certified copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the office not later than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default, the instrument or proxy shall not be treated as valid. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.

Form of Proxy

105. Any instrument appointing a proxy may be a two way proxy form to enable the shareholders to vote for or against any resolution at their discretion. The instrument of proxy shall be in the prescribed form as given in Form MGT-11.

Validity of votes given by proxy notwithstanding death of member

106. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the proxy or of any power of attorney under which such proxy was signed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, provided that no intimation in writing of the death or insanity revocation or transfer shall have been received at the Office before the meeting.

Time for objections of Votes

107. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote, except at any meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered and every vote whether given personally or by proxy, not disallowed at such meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll whatsoever.

Chairman of the meeting to be judge of validity of any vote

108. The Chairman of any meeting shall be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at such meeting. The Chairman present at the taking of a poll shall be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at such poll.

Certain matters to be exercised by special resolution

109. The Company shall not do or cause to be done any of the following acts or things except by means of a SPECIAL RESOLUTION passed by the Company in General Meeting;

1. for thirty days from the date of adjudication, sentence or order;
2. where any appeal or petition is preferred within the thirty days aforesaid against the adjudication, sentence or conviction resulting in the sentence or order until the expiry of seven days from the date on which such appeal or petition is disposed off; or;
3. where within the seven days as aforesaid, any further appeal or petition is preferred in respect of the adjudication, sentence, conviction or order, and appeal or petition, if allowed, would result in the removal of the disqualification, until such further appeal or petition is disposed off.

Independent Directors

- 123.(i) The Directors may appoint such number of Independent Directors as are required under Section 149 of the Act or Listing Regulations, whichever is higher, from time to time.
- (ii) Independent Directors shall possess such qualification as required under section 149 of the Act and Listing Agreement.
 - (iii) Independent Directors shall be appointed for such period as prescribed under relevant provisions of the Act and Listing Agreement and shall not be liable to retire by rotation.

Woman Director

124. The Directors shall appoint one woman director as per the requirements of section 149 of the Act and Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement.

Directors may contract with Company

125. Subject to the limitations prescribed in the Act, the Directors shall be entitled to contract with the Company and no director shall be disqualified by having contracted with the Company as aforesaid.

Disclosure of interest

126. A Director of the company who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly concerned or interested in a contract or arrangement, or proposed contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into by or on behalf of the Company shall disclose the nature of his concern or interest at a meeting of the Board in the manner provided in sec 184 of the Act.

General notice of interest

127. A general notice given to the Board by the Directors to the effect that he is a Director or member of a specified body corporate or is a member of a specified firm and is to be referred as concerned or interested in any contract or arrangement which may, after the date of the notice, be entered into with that corporate or firm, shall be deemed to be sufficient disclosure of concern or interest in relation to any contract or arrangement so made. Any such general notice shall expire at the end of the financial year in which it is given but may be renewed for a further period of one financial year at a time by a fresh notice given in the last month of the financial year in which it would have otherwise expired. No such general notice, and no renewal thereof, shall be of effect unless it is given at a meeting of the Board or the Director concerned takes reasonable steps to secure that it is brought up and read at the first meeting of the Board after it is given.

Interested Director not to participate or vote in the Board proceedings

128. No Directors shall as a Director take any part in the discussion of or vote on any contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into by or on behalf of the Company, if he is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in such contract or arrangements; nor shall his presence count for the purpose of forming a quorum at the time of any such discussion or vote; and if he does vote, his vote shall be void; provided however, that nothing herein contained shall apply to
- (i) any contract of indemnity against any loss which the Directors, or any one or more of them may suffer by reason of being sureties or a surety for the Company;
 - (ii) any contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into with a public company or a private company which is a subsidiary of a public company in which the interest of the Director consists solely
 - (a) in his being
 - (i) a Director of such company, and
 - (ii) the holder of not more than shares of such number or value therein as is requisite to qualify him for appointment as a Director thereof, he having been nominated as such Director by the Company, or
 - (b) in his being a member or holding not more than two percent of its paid up share capital.

Register of contracts in which the Directors are interested

129. The Company shall keep a Register in accordance with Section 189 and shall within the time specified in section 189 (2) enter therein such of the particulars as may be relevant having regard to the application thereto of Section 188 or 184 of the Act as the case may be. The Register aforesaid shall also specify, in relation to each Director of the Company the names of the corporate and firms of which notice has been given by him under Article 126. The Register shall be kept at the Office of the Company and shall be open to inspection at such office, and extracts may be taken there from and copies thereof may be required by any member of the Company to the same extent and in the same manner and on payment of the same fee as in the case of the Register of Members of the Company and the provisions of Section 94 of the Act shall apply accordingly.

Directors may be Directors of Companies promoted by the Company

130. A Director may be or become a Director of any company promoted by the Company or in which it may be interested as a vendor, shareholder, or otherwise, and no such Director shall be accountable for any benefits received as Director or Shareholder of such Company except in so far as provided in the provisions of the Act may be applicable.

131. The proportion of directors to retire by rotation shall be as per the provisions of Section 152 of the Act.

Ascertainment of Directors retiring by rotation and filling vacancies

132. Subject to Section 152 of the Act, the Directors to retire by rotation under Article 130 at every Annual General Meeting shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those who are to retire, shall, in default of and subject to any agreement among themselves, be determined by lot.

Eligibility for re-election

133. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

Provisions in default of appointment

- 134.(a) If the place of the retiring director is not so filled up and the meeting has not expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy, the meeting shall stand adjourned until the same day in the next week, at the same time and place.
- (b) If at the adjourned meeting also, the place of retiring Director is not filled up and that meeting also has not expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy, the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been reappointed at the adjourned meeting unless
- (i) at the meeting or at the previous meeting the resolution for the reappointment of such Director has been put to the meeting and lost;
 - (ii) the retiring Director has, by a notice in writing addressed to the Company or its Board, expressed his unwillingness to be so re-appointed;
 - (iii) he is not qualified or is disqualified for appointment;
 - (iv) a resolution, whether special or ordinary, is required for the appointment or reappointment by virtue of any provisions of the Act; or
 - (v) section 162 is applicable to the case.

Company may increase or reduce the number of Directors

135. Subject to sec 149, 151 and 152 of the Act, the Company may, by ordinary resolution, from time to time, increase or reduce the number of Directors and may alter their qualifications and the Company may (subject to the provisions of section 169 of the Act) remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and appoint another qualified person in his seat. The person so appointed shall hold office during such time as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

Notice of candidate for office of Director except in certain cases

- 136.(a) No person not being a retiring Director, shall be eligible for appointment to the office of Director at any general meeting unless he or some member intending to propose him has not less than fourteen days before the meeting, left at the office of Company a notice in writing under his hand signifying his candidature for the office of Director or the intention of such member to propose him as a candidate for that office as the case may be, along with a deposit of one lakh rupees which shall be refunded to such person or as the case may be, to such member, if the person succeeds in getting elected as a Director.
- (b) Every person (other than a Director retiring by rotation or otherwise or a person who has left at the office of the company a notice under sec 160 of the Act signifying his candidature for the office of a Director) proposed as a candidate for the office of a director, shall sign and file with the company, the consent in writing to act as a Director if appointed.
- (c) A person other than a Director reappointed after retirement by rotation or immediately on the expiry of his term of office of an additional or alternate Director, or a person filling a casual vacancy in the office of a Director under sec 161 of the Act, appointed as a Director or re appointed as an additional or alternate Director, immediately on the expiry of his term of office, shall not act as a Director of the Company, unless he has within thirty days of his appointment signed and filed with the Registrar his consent in writing to act as such Director.

Register of Directors and KMP and their shareholding

137. The Company shall keep at its registered office a register containing the addresses and occupation and the other particulars as required by Section 170 of the Act of its Directors and Key Managerial Personnel and shall send to the Registrar of Companies returns as required by the Act.

Disclosure by Director of appointment to any body corporate

138. Every Director and Key Managerial Personnel Company shall within thirty day of his appointment to any of the above offices in any other body corporate, disclose to the Company the particulars relating to his office in the other body corporate which are required to be specified under section 170 of the Act.

- (b) The Chairman of the Board shall be entitled to take the chair at every meeting of the Board. If no Chairman is appointed in pursuance of this Article, or if at any meeting of the Board, he shall not be present within 30 (thirty) minutes of the time appointed for holding such meeting or if he shall be unable or unwilling to take the chair, then the Managing Director shall be entitled to take the chair and failing him the Directors present may choose one of their number to be the Chairman of the meeting.

Questions at Board meetings, how decided

149. Questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Power of Board meetings

150. A meeting of the Board for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions which by or under the Act or the articles of the Company are for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Board generally.

Directors may appoint committees

151. Subject to the restrictions contained in section 179 of the Act, the Board may delegate any of their powers to committees of the Board consisting of such number of members of its body as it thinks fit and it may from time to time revoke and discharge any such committee of the Board either wholly or in part and either as to persons or purposes, but every committee of the Board so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may from time to time be imposed on to by the Board. All acts done by any such committee of the Board in conformity with such regulations and in fulfillment of the purposes of their appointment but not otherwise, shall have the like force and effect as if done by the Board.

Meeting of Committee how to be governed

152. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee of the Board consisting of two or more members shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors, so far as the same and applicable hereto and are not superseded by regulations made by the Directors under the last proceeding Article.

Resolution by circulation

153. No resolution shall be deemed to have been duly passed by the Board or by a committee thereof by circulation, unless the resolution has been circulated in draft, together with the necessary papers, if any, to all the Directors or to all the members of the committee, then in India (not being less in number than quorum fixed for a meeting of the board or committee, as the case may be), and to all other Directors or Members of the Committee, at their usual address in India and has been approved by such of the Directors or Members of the Committee, as are then in India, or by majority of such of them, as are entitled to vote on the resolution.

Acts of Board or Committee valid notwithstanding informal appointment

154. All acts done by any meeting of the Board or by a committee of the Board, or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of such Director or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified or had vacated office or that the appointment of any of them had been terminated by virtue of any provisions contained in the Act or in these Articles, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, and was qualified to be a Director and had not vacated his office or his appointment had not been terminated provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to give validity to acts done by a Director after his appointment has been shown to the Company to be invalid or to have terminated.

Minutes of proceedings of the meeting of the Board

- 155.(a) The Company shall cause minutes of all proceedings of every meeting of the Board and the committee thereof to be kept by making within thirty days of the conclusion of every such meeting entries thereof in book kept for the purpose with their pages consecutively numbered.
- (b) Each page of every such book shall be initialed or signed and the last page of the record of proceedings of each meeting in such book shall be dated and signed by the Chairman of the said meeting or the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting.
 - (c) In no case shall the minutes of proceedings of a meeting be attached to any such book as aforesaid by pasting or otherwise.
 - (d) The minutes of each meeting shall contain a fair and correct summary of the proceedings thereat.
 - (e) All appointments of officers made at any of the meeting aforesaid shall be included in the minutes of the meeting.
 - (f) The minutes shall also contain:
 - (i) The names of the Director present at the meeting; and
 - (ii) In the case of each resolution passed at the meeting the names of the Directors, if any, dissenting from or not concurring in resolution
 - (g) Nothing contained in sub-clauses (a) to (f) shall be deemed to require the inclusion in any such minutes of any matter which, in the opinion of the Chairman of the meeting :
 - (i) is or could reasonably be regarded as defamatory of any person;
 - (ii) is irrelevant or immaterial to the proceeding; or
 - (iii) is detrimental to the interests of the Company.
- The Chairman shall exercise an absolute discretion in regard to the inclusion or non-inclusion of any matter in the minutes on the grounds specified in this sub-clause.
- (h) Minutes of the meetings kept in accordance with aforesaid provisions shall be evidence of the proceedings recorded therein.

Power of Directors

156. The board may exercise all such powers of the Company and do all such acts and things as are not, by the Act, or any other Act, or by the Memorandum or by the Articles of the Company, required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to these Articles, to the provisions of the Act, or any other Act and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting but no regulations made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

Provided that the Board shall not, except with the consent of the Company in General Meeting:

- (a) sell, lease or otherwise dispose off the whole, or substantially the whole of the undertaking of the Company, or where the Company owns more than one undertaking, of the whole, or substantially the whole of any such undertaking;

Provided further that the powers specified in section 179 of the Act shall, subject to these Articles, so exercised only at meetings of the Board, unless the same be delegated to the extent therein stated, or

- (e) contribute to charitable and other funds, subject to the provisions contained in section 181 of the Act.

Certain powers of the Board

157. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by the last preceding Article and so as not in any way to omit or restrict those powers, and without prejudice to the other powers conferred by these Articles, but subject to the restrictions contained in the last preceding Article, it is hereby declared that the Directors shall have the following powers; that is to say, power

- (a) To pay the costs, charges and expenses preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Company;
- (b) To pay and charge to the capital account of the Company any commission under the provisions of sections 40 of the Act;
- (c) To purchase or otherwise acquire for the Company any property, rights or privileges which the Company is authorised to acquire, at or for such price or consideration and generally on such terms and conditions as they may think fit; and in any such purchase or other acquisition to accept such title as the Directors may believe or may be advised to be reasonably satisfactory;
- (d) At their discretion and subject to the provisions of the Act, to pay for any property; rights or privileges acquired by or services, rendered to the Company, either wholly or partially, in cash or in shares, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or other securities of the Company, and any such shares may be issued either as fully paid-up or with such amount credited as paid up thereon as may be agreed upon; and any such bonds, debentures, mortgages or other securities may be either specially charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company and its uncalled capital or not so charged;

- (e) To secure the fulfillment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge of all or any of the property of the Company and its uncalled capital for the time being or in such manner as they may think fit;
- (f) To accept from any member, as far as may be permissible by law, a surrender of his shares or any part thereof, on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed;
- (g) To appoint any person to accept and hold in trust for the Company any property belonging to the Company, in which it is interested, or for any other purposes and to execute and do all such deeds and things as may be required in relation to any trust, and to provide for the remuneration of such trustee or trustees;
- (h) To institute, conduct, defend, compound, or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Company or its officers, or otherwise concerning the affairs of the Company, and also to compound and allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due, and of any claim or demands by or against the Company and to refer any differences to arbitration, and observe and perform any awards made thereon;
- (i) To act on behalf of the Company in all matters relating to bankrupts and insolvents;
- (j) To make and give receipts, releases, and other discharges for moneys payable to the Company and for the claims and demands of the Company;
- (k) Subject to the provisions of the Act, to invest and deal with any money of the Company not immediately required for the purposes thereof upon such security (not being shares of this Company), or without security and in such manner as they think fit, and from time to time to vary or realize such investment. Save as provided in Section 187 of the Act, all investments shall be made and held in the Company's own name;
- (l) To execute in the name and on behalf of the Company in favour of any Director or other person who may incur or be about to incur any personal liability whether as principal or surety, for the benefit of the Company, such mortgages of the Company's property (present and future) as they think fit, and any such mortgage may contain a power of sale and such other powers, provisions, covenants and agreements as shall be agreed upon;
- (m) To determine from time to time who shall be entitled to sign, on the Company's behalf bills, notes, receipt, acceptances, endorsements, cheques, dividend warrants, releases, contracts and documents and to give the necessary authority for such purpose;
- (n) To distribute by way of bonus amongst the staff of the Company share or shares in the profits of the Company, and to give to any officer or other person employed by the Company a commission of the profits of any particular business or transaction; and to charge such bonus or commission as part of the working expenses of the Company;
- (o) To provide for the welfare of the Directors or ex-Directors or employees or ex-employees of the Company and their wives, widows and families of the dependents or connections of such persons, by building of houses, dwellings or chawls, or by grants of money, pension, gratuities, allowances, bonus or other payments, or by creating and from time to time subscribing or contributing to provident and other associations, institutions, funds or trusts and by providing or subscribing or contributing towards places of instruction and recreation, hospitals and dispensaries, medical and other attendance and other assistance as the Board shall think fit, and to subscribe or contribute or otherwise to assist or to guarantee money to charitable, benevolent, religious, scientific, national or other institution or objects which shall have any moral or other claim to support or aid by the Company, either by reason or locality of operation, or of public and general utility or otherwise;

- (p) Before recommending any dividend, to set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they may think proper for depreciation or to Depreciation Fund, or to an Insurance Fund or as a reserve Fund or Sinking Fund or any special fund to meet the contingencies or to repay debentures or debenture-stock or for special dividends or for equalizing dividends or for repairing, improving, extending and maintaining any of the property of the Company and for such other purposes (including the purposes referred to in the proceeding clause), as the Board may, in their absolute discretion, think conducive ;to the interest of the Company, and subject to Section 179 of the Act, to invest the several sums so set aside or so much thereof as required to be invested, upon such investments (other than shares of the Company) as they may think fit, and from time to time deal with and vary such investments and dispose of any, apply and expend all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company, in such manner and for such purposes as the Board in their absolute discretion think conducive to the interest of the Company, notwithstanding that the matters to which the Board apply or upon which they expend the same, or any part thereof, may be matters to or upon which the capital moneys of the Company might rightly be applied or expended; and to divide the Reserve Fund into such special funds as the Board may think fit, with full power to transfer the whole or any portion of Reserve Fund or division of a Reserve Fund to another Reserve Fund or division of Reserve Fund and with full power to employ the assets constituting all or any of the above funds, including the Depreciation Fund, in the business of the Company or in the purchase or repayment of Debentures or debenture-stock, and without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets and without being bound to pay interest on the same with power however to the Board at their discretion to pay or allow to the credit of such funds interest at such rate as the Board may think proper, not exceeding nine per cent per annum;
- (q) To appoint, and at their discretion remove or suspend such General Managers, Managers, Secretaries, Assistants, Supervisors, Clerks, Agents and servants for permanent, temporary or special services as they may from time to time think fit, and to determine their powers and duties, and fix their salaries or emoluments or remuneration and to require security in such instances and to such amount as they may think fit. Also from time to time provide for the management and transaction of the affairs of the Company in any specified locality in India or elsewhere in such manner as they think fit; and the provisions contained in the four next following sub-clauses shall be without prejudice to the general powers conferred by this sub-clause;
- (r) To comply with the requirements of any local law which in their opinion it shall, in the interests of the Company, be necessary or expedient to comply with;
- (s) From time to time and at any time to establish any Local Board for Managing any of the affairs of the Company in any specified locality in India or elsewhere and to appoint any person to be members of such Local Board, and to fix their remuneration;
- (t) Subject to Section 179 of the Act, from time to time, and any time, to delegate to any person so appointed any of the powers, authorities and discretion for the time being vested in the Board other than power to make calls or to make loans or borrow moneys, and to authorize the members for the time being of any such Local Board, or any of them to fill up any vacancies therein and to act notwithstanding vacancies, and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board may think fit, and the Board may at any time remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation;

- (u) At any time and from time to time by Power of Attorney under the Seal of the Company, to appoint any person or persons to be the Attorney or Attorneys of the Company, for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Board under these presents and excluding the power to make calls and excluding also, except in their limits authorised by the Board, the power to make loans and borrow moneys) and for such period and subject to such conditions as the Board may from time to time think fit; and any such appointment may (if the Board think fit) be made in favour of the members or any of the members of any Local Board, established as aforesaid or in favour of any Company, or the shareholders, Directors, nominees, or managers of any Company or firm or otherwise in favour of any fluctuating body of persons whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Board and any such Power of Attorney may contain such powers enabling any such delegates or attorneys as aforesaid to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, for the protection of convenience of persons dealing with such attorneys as the Board may think fit and may contain powers, authorities and discretion for the time being vested in them;
- (v) to enter into all such negotiations and contracts and rescind and vary all such contracts, and execute and do all such acts, deeds and things in the name and on behalf of the Company as they may consider expedient;
- (w) From time to time to make, vary and repeal by-laws for the regulation of the business of the Company its officers and servants.

The Company in General Meeting may declare a dividend

163. The Company in general meetings may declare dividends out of profits of any financial year or previous financial year to be paid to members according to their respective rights, but no dividends shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board, but the Company in General meeting may declare a smaller dividend.

Dividends only to be paid out of profits

164. No dividend shall be payable except out of the profits of the year or any other undistributed profits except as provided by Section 123 of the Act.

Interim Dividend

165. The Board may from time to time, pay to the members such interim dividend as in their judgment the position of the Company justifies.

Capital paid up in advance at interest not to earn dividend

166. Where capital is paid in advance of calls, such capital may carry interest but shall not in respect thereof confer right to dividend or to participate in profit.

Dividend in proportion to amount paid-up

167. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

Retention of dividends until completion of transfer under Article 62

168. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Board may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under Article 62 entitled to become a member or which any person under that Article is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a member, in respect of such shares or shall duly transfer the same.

Dividend etc., to joint holders

169. Any one of several persons who are registered as the joint holder of any share may give effectual receipts for all dividends or bonus and payment on account of dividends or bonus or other moneys payable in respect of such shares.

No member to receive dividend while indebted to the Company and Company's right of reimbursement thereout

170. No member shall be entitled to receive payment of any interest or dividends in respect of his share or shares, while any money may be due or owing from him to the Company in respect of such share or shares or otherwise, howsoever either alone or jointly with any other person or persons and the Board may deduct from the interest or dividend payable to any member all sums of money so due from him to the Company.

Transfer of shares must be registered

171. A transfer of shares shall not cause the right to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer.

Dividend how remitted

172. Unless otherwise directed, any dividend may be paid by electronic mode or by cheque or warrant or by a pay slip or receipt having the force of a cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the member or person entitled or in the case of joint holders to that one of them first named in the order of the person to whom it is sent. The Company shall not be liable or responsible for any cheque or warrant or pay slip or receipt lost in transmission, or for any dividend lost to the member or person entitled thereto by the forged endorsement of any cheque or warrant or the forged signature of any pay slip or receipt or the fraudulent recovery of the dividend by any other means.

Unclaimed/Unpaid dividend

173. No unclaimed or unpaid dividend shall be forfeited by the Board and dividends unclaimed or unpaid will be dealt with as per the provisions of Section 123 and 124 or other provisions if any of the Act as may be applicable from time to time.

No interest on dividends

174. Subject to the provisions of the Act, no unpaid dividend shall bear interest as against the Company.

Dividend and Call together

175. Any general meeting declaring a dividend may, on the recommendation of the Directors, make a call on the members of such amount as the meeting fixes, but the call on each member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him, and the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend; and the dividend may, if so arranged between the company and the members, be set off against the calls.

Capitalisation

176. (1) The Company by ordinary resolution in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve
- (a) that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and
 - (b) that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (2) below amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.
- (2) The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision contained in clause (3) below, either in or towards
- (A) paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;
 - (B) paying up in full, unissued shares or other securities of the Company to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid;
 - (C) partly in the way specified in sub-clause (A) and partly in that specified in sub-clause (B).
- (3) A securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve account or any other permissible reserve account may, for the purposes of this Article, be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.
- (4) The Board shall give effect to the resolution passed by the Company in pursuance of this Article.
177. (1) Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall :
- (a) make all appropriations and applications of the amounts resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or other securities, if any; and
 - (b) generally do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.
- (2) The Board shall have power :
- (a) to make such provisions, by the issue of fractional certificates/coupons or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, for the case of shares or other securities becoming distributable in fractions ; and
 - (b) to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares or other securities to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or as the case may require, for the payment by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amount or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares.

- (3) Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on such members.
